

Sinclair's Broadcasting's decision to broadcast an anti Kerry documentary as "news" with no equal time for an opposing view is just one more example of the problems with deregulation of media ownership. I ask that the FCC consider reinstating past ownership rules that guard our public airwaves. A less diverse media is not in the publics best interest.
Thank you.

Kevin Allemann